- Carol Holley, Casto Travel, San Francisco, CA

"In my 36 years on the front lines of the travel business, there are but a handful, maybe two handfuls, of companies who have risen above the mark to make travel arrangements happen with ease and style. Preston Epstein and his team at Celebrated is one of these operations. This company has excelled by specializing in England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales. They know every property, have hand picked drivers, and constantly update and review those whom they represent. Their documentation is 5-star. What a treat to call Celebrated."

“I’ve used Celebrated for many years. They have one of the best listings of hotels throughout the UK and Ireland. The selection is varied, priced from reasonable to ultra-Deluxe . . . But more important, it’s dealing with folks who have been there, know each hotel intimately and give advice which is always accurate and to the point. If you’re going to their neck of the woods, Celebrated is your key to success.”
